THE BEATITUDES OF DEATH– Ps. 116:15

Death is an inescapable conclusion of life. Yet for the reader of the Bible he finds death to be by Divine appointment. "It is appointed unto men once to die . . ." Heb. 9:27. "To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under Heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die . . ." Eccles. 3: 1, 2. The word "Time" as used here means a determined or appointed time. For the unbeliever death is the end of life and the beginning of eternal death and separation from God. For the believer death is a transference from temporal life into eternal life with the Godhead.

The world says, "Blessed are the living:" but God says, "Blessed are the dead." God does not say blessed are all the dead, but those that "die in the Lord." To be "in the Lord" implies many things, one of which is perseverance. Not all that look like branceheS are branches of the true vine. Many branches fall off when the winds begin to blow. Even so in times of temptation and persecution many false professors of Christ drop away. Rotten branches burn more fiercely in the flames. Those who are true Christians are "kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation" I Peter 1:15. And "He which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ." Phil. 1: 6. These "Blessed dead" merely pass through the valley of the shadow of death and need fear no evil for their Lord is with them. These blessed have been "labours" who serve God and now enter into rest. "Their works do follow them." They being dead yet speak. Are you included in this beatitude?
